SEMINARS: "APPLYING INFRARED (IR) THERMOGRAPHY TO MARINE SURVEYING"

Allinson Infrared Inspection Services, Inc (AIRISINC). is pleased to announce that John (JACK) N. Allinson, II, SAMS® Accredited Marine Surveyor and Level III Certified Infrared Thermographer offers Sixteen (16 CE) Hour seminars at facilities in Jacksonville, Florida. A video outlining some facets of the seminar can be viewed at <http://youtu.be/BAScCrWYiVw>
Be prepared for hard work as 2 day seminars are "HANDS ON" in classroom and boatyard.

In addition to receiving a "Certificate of Attendance", participants can earn "Marine Surveying Application Certification" issued by AIRISINC upon successful submission of an "optional take home exam". The AIRIS minimum pre-requisite for accepting the "optional take home exam" is current Level I Certification showing knowledge proficiency in Infrared Thermography.

SAMS® surveyors can earn Thirty Two (32) CE credits by completing a Distance Learning Certification Prep Course and passing a proctored Certified Infrared Thermographer® exam.
